

2018-2019 Filipino Resource List

If you are in a medical emergency and/or are in danger, please call 9-1-1

Asian American Recovery Services, Inc. (AARS)

Project Reconnect

<http://www.aars-inc.org/> Ph: (415) 776-1001 F: (415) 776-1066
2166 Hayes Street, San Francisco, CA 94117 Office Hours: M-F 9AM-5PM

A youth substance abuse program through Asian American Recovery Services (AARS) that provides outpatient substance abuse treatment to Asian and Pacific Islander (AP/I) Youth ages 12 to 24 in San Francisco. Services provided include: individual and group counseling, alcohol, tobacco and other drugs (ATOD) workshops, and presentations.

Bayanihan Equity Center (BEC)

www.vetsequitycenter.org
1010 Mission Street, Suite C Office Hours: M-F 9AM-5PM
San Francisco, CA 94103 Closed 12PM-1PM
Ph: (415) 255-2347
F: (415) 255-2358

The San Francisco Bayanihan Equity Center (BEC) is a multi-service center designed to provide linguistically competent and culturally appropriate services for the estimated three thousand (3,000) Filipino-American World War II Veterans and their immediate families. These services include: outreach, information and referrals, translation, consultation, computer skills class, arts and crafts, recreation and social activities, and advocacy. Additionally, VEC provides free legal service every first and third Friday of the month, 2-4 PM.

Filipino American Counseling and Treatment (FACT) Team

South of Market Mental Health Services
760 Harrison Street, San Francisco, CA 94107 Office Hours: M-F 8:30AM-5PM
Ph: (415) 836-1700 F: (415) 836-1737 TDD: (415) 836-1799

A specialty team of clinicians that provide clinical assessment, psychiatric medication services, crisis intervention, clinical case management, information and education, individual, couple, family and group counseling that is culturally competent and linguistically appropriate to Filipinos ages 18 to up.

Filipino Community Center (FCC)

www.filipinoec.org Ph: (415) 333-6267 F: (415) 333-6495
4681 Mission Street, San Francisco, CA 94112 Office Hours: M-F 10AM-4PM

A grassroots multi-service community center for Filipino youth and families living and working in the Excelsior district of San Francisco that provides services including: community discussions/education, employment services, immigration services, substance abuse prevention, organizing campaigns and projects, youth and student afterschool program; recreational and social activities.

Filipino Mental Health Initiative – San Francisco (FMHI-SF)

1010 Mission Street, Suite B, San Francisco, CA 94103
Ph: (415) 348-8042 F: (415) 974-0349

FMHI-SF established in 2012, are a group of mental health providers, consumers, consumer advocates, community leaders, and interested community members committed to supporting the wellness of Filipino and Filipino-Americans by increasing access, cultural sensitivity, and effectiveness of behavioral health services in San Francisco. FMHI-SF aims to reduce the stigma of mental health by increasing culturally appropriate wellness services for Filipinos through community based partners that specialize in the outreach and engagement of Filipinos of all ages.

Filipino Mental Health Initiative - San Mateo County

FMHISMC@gmail.com

The mission of the Filipino Mental Health Initiative (FMHI) is to improve the well-being of Filipinos in San Mateo County by: reducing the stigma of mental health and substance abuse, increasing access to services, and further empowering the community through outreach and engagement. The vision of the Filipino Mental Health Initiative is a healthy and thriving Filipino community that is actively engaged in improving community health, and the one that celebrates its culture and heritage.

Mabuhay Health Center

<http://mhc-sf.weebly.com/> Ph: (415) 633-6421
1010 Mission Street, Suite B, San Francisco, CA 94103

*Free clinic - every 2nd Sat. 8:30am

A volunteer led community health clinic that provides health screenings, medication therapy management, and health education to SoMa residents. The program aim is to evaluate health disparities within the Filipino American community and assess the effectiveness of the program through ongoing research studies.

Richmond Area Multi-Services, Inc. (RAMS)

www.ramsinc.org Ph: (415) 800-0699 F: (415) 751-7366
639 14th Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94118

RAMS is a private, non-profit mental health agency that is committed to advocating for and providing community based, culturally-competent, and consumer-guided comprehensive services, with an emphasis on serving Asian & Pacific Islander Americans. RAMS believes in serving clients in their primary language or preferred language(s) of treatment, supporting consumer choice and empowerment, and advocating for the accessibility to services. Currently, RAMS offers over 30 programs that are integrated into various clinical programs such as Child, Youth & Family Outpatient Services Clinic and Summer Bridge, PAES Counseling & Pre-Vocational Services, and Peer Counseling Services.

San Francisco Suicide Prevention

<http://www.sfsuicide.org>
P.O. Box 191350, San Francisco, CA 94119-1350 24-hour crisis line: (415) 781-0500 or (800) 273-8255
Ph: (415) 984-1900

San Francisco Suicide Prevention is the oldest community-based telephone crisis center in the United States. To this day the agency trains local volunteers who provide suicide prevention and crisis intervention services to callers. San Francisco Suicide Prevention's 24-hour Crisis Line provides immediate crisis intervention and emotional support to everyone who calls. All volunteers are trained and supervised by a professional staff, and all receive ongoing training to hone their skills with the newest developments in the field of suicide prevention.

South of Market Community Action Network

www.somcan.org Ph: (415) 255-7693
1110 Howard St, San Francisco, CA

The South of Market Community Action Network (SOMCAN) is a multi-racial, community-based organization, serving low-income immigrant youth and families in SoMa and greater San Francisco since 2000.

SOMCAN organizes, supports and informs the SoMa community through leadership development, advocacy, direct services, and referrals.

SOMCAN believes in uplifting the voices of immigrants, people of color and low-income communities, so they will be heard in local policy-making decisions and hold civic offices accountable to their needs.

South of Market Family Resource Center

www.somacc.org Ph: (415) 820-3508 Office Hours: M-F 8AM-5PM
790 Folsom Street, San Francisco, CA *plus evening and weekends by appointment

A Family Resource Center providing support services in English, Spanish, and Tagalog to families with children from infancy to age 17. Each year, we help more than 600 families in San Francisco, focusing on the South of Market neighborhood.

Services include individual case management, parent support groups, basic needs assistance, and workshops on school enrollment, nutrition, and other topics requested by the community.

We have three Tagalog speaking staff who coordinate the Certified Pilipino Parenting Program, Pilipino Support Group, & conducts Individual Case Managing.

We also offer several additional programs and activities to strengthen families and the community, including:

Kindergarten transition counseling – Support for incoming kindergarten students at Bessie Carmichael School.

Raising a Reader – A parent-engagement book-lending program to foster early literacy and a lifelong love of reading.

Respite care – Free childcare one Saturday and one evening a month to give parents time to themselves.

United Playaz (U.P.)

www.unitedplayaz.org Ph: (888) ZPLAYAZ (975-2929)
1038 Howard Street, San Francisco, CA 94103

A violence prevention, intervention and youth leadership organization that works with San Francisco youth through street outreach, case management, in-school services, recreational activities and support to incarcerated youth. Many of the participants U.P. serves are Filipino youth throughout San Francisco.

Westbay Pilipino Multi-Services

www.westbaycenter.org Ph:(415) 431-6266 F: (415) 252-8758

175 7th Street, San Francisco, CA 94103

A multi-service program for children and youth that provides after school tutoring, homework assistance, recreational activities, film-making, personal financial literacy, obesity prevention programs, physical fitness, youth employment services and early delinquency & intervention programs.