

Scan the QR code to learn more!

A youth mental health education program of the Filipino Mental Health Initiative of San Francisco

Youth Contingency

Buong Loob

Filipinx Student Wellbeing Conference

Do you want to gain skills in event planning? Are you passionate about promoting wellness in your community? Join our Spring 2023 Youth Contingency to organize the 2nd annual "Buong Loob: Filipinx Student Wellbeing Conference." This internship is a paid, 18-week youth mental health education program of the Filipino Mental Health Initiative of San Francisco and SFUSD's Office of College and Career Readiness. Youth leaders engage in project-based learning activities to determine the wellness needs of SFUSD's Filipino & Filipina/o/x American high school population and create humanizing learning spaces in the form of a conference.

We will be accepting applications for our Spring 2023 cohort until November 11th, 2022.

COMMITMENTS & STIPEND INFO

- 18 weeks from January 2023-May 2023
- Meets weekly on Tuesdays from 5-6:30 PM at an SFUSD High School Site (TBD)*
- $17.90 an hour; employed through SFUSD.
- Must complete SFUSD hiring process.

ELIGIBILITY

- 10th/11th/12th grade
- Identifies as Filipino or Filipina/o/x American
- Enrolled at an SFUSD High School
- Completed one semester of Ethnic Studies course or equivalent*

LEARN MORE AT

WWW.FMHI-SF.ORG/FSWC

*For questions, contact Program Leader Verma Zapanta at verma@bayanihancc.org

